

Name : Kwadwo Adjei Darko

Government Administration : J.A. Kuffour (1st Admin)

Designation: Minister of Local Government

Duration : 2003-2005

Kwadwo Adjei Darko is a Ghanaian politician born on May 10, 1948. He obtained a Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Cape Coast where he majored in education.

He was the Member of Parliament for the Sunyani West constituency in the Brong Ahafo Region of Ghana parliaments of the 4th republic of Ghana.

He was the former Minister of Mines back in the early 2000s, and as of 2008, he was the Minister of Local Government, Rural Development and Environment of Ghana and a Member of Parliament for the Sunyani West Constituency.

He has done much work to facilitate rural development in Ghana, particularly with the mining of salt and diamonds.

He played a major role in the women's ministry too by arranging cars for young women who were entering the work force. He even used his own money to purchase cars for them.

Adjei Darko is a Christian, and has three daughters.