

Name : Martin Kwaku Adjei-Mensah Korsah
Government Administration : Akuffo Addo (2nd Admin)
Designation: Minister of Local Government
Duration : March 2024 February 2025

Kwaku Adjei-Mensah was born on 12 April, 1978 and hails from Techiman in the Bono East Region.

He completed his SSSCE in 1998 where he studied Government, History and Christian Religious Studies. He received his Bachelors of Arts in Political Science in 2005 from the University of Ghana and his master's degree in Politics and International Relations in 2007.

Korsah was a basic school coordinator of GES. He was also the Presiding Member of the Techiman Municipal Assembly. He was also the Director of Elections and Research for the New Patriotic Party.

Korsah is a member of NPP and currently the MP for the Techiman South Constituency in the Bono East Region. In the 2020 Ghana general elections and he was appointed as the Deputy Minister for Local Government, Decentralization and Rural Development and subsequently become the Minister for the same Ministry.

He became the Minister for Local Government, Decentralization and Rural Development.

Korsah is a member of the House committee and also a member of Foreign Affairs Committee